On 08/31/2016 ODET detectives conducted a narcotics investigation at a local hotel in Carthage Mo. that led to the arrest of 3 suspects and the seizure of 400 grams of suspected methamphetamine worth a street value of $40,000. The suspects were identified as Charlie Crow from Monett MO, Matthew Winfrey from Aurora Mo and Justine McCaffrey of Monett. Crow and Winfrey were wanted on multiple felony warrants and all 3 suspects are facing Distribution Charges through the Jasper County Prosecutors Office.

ODET Detectives have seized approximately 1350 grams of Meth for the month of August with an estimated street value of $135,000. ODET Detectives continue to fight to dismantle large scale Drug Trafficking organizations that are supplying meth to Barry, Barton, Jasper and McDonald Counties.
